NJD CRAZY

He may only be small but Simon Smith is one of NJD's greatest fans. Simon Smith (of Herne Bay, Kent) pictured here with NJD's Managing Director Kevin Hopcroft (Alexandra Hopcroft in the background) visits the Plasa Show each year with his parents Andy & Lesley and adds to his collection of NJD memorabilia.

This year he arrived wearing an NJD Baseball cap, a pair of NJD sun glasses and an NJD PREDATOR "T" Shirt. To add to his growing collection he was presented this year with a special NJD mug by Mrs. Heather Hopcroft.

Simon's parents told NJD that nothing would keep him away and that he looks forward to the trip to London every year. Simon's Dad Andy runs his own disco and is presently opening his own radio station and so the whole family has an interest in Plasa.

To complete his trip this year NJD allowed Simon up into the control box, in the NJD theatre at Plasa, to see how the massive NJD lighting rig was controlled and stand in during one of the demonstrations.

We look forward to seeing you again next year Simon, for PLASA 98.
